A must-see for students who want to pursue a global career!

Online Networking Event

for Students and Global Companies

- This is an event where you can talk directly with representatives
- from foreign-affiliated companies about everything from day-to-day operations
- to career plans. Please join us and feel free to enter and leave anytime during event hours.

Important There will be no explanations (employment conditions, interviews, etc.) related to job-hunting activities at this event. The purpose of this event is to provide information to deepen your understanding of foreign companies and to broaden your career options through interaction with participating companies.
