

OPEN MIC

Aspire to an academic and research career in the future?

Join us at the Open Mic (Zoom)
and talk about your research for 3 mins.

Develop these skills:

- Engage a diverse audience using easy to understand words.
- Critically analyze your ability to communicate your research.
- Interact with students in other academic disciplines to broaden your intellectual horizon.

Registration

- Open to all NU students.
- Audience members are also welcome.
- Access the following link for advanced registration.

<https://forms.gle/p4BbR3tb7dEySGuJ8>

Schedule for May

- Japanese
May. 12 (wed) 12:00-13:00
Moderator : FURUYA, Reiko
(Grad. School of Engineering)

What to do at Open Mic ?

1. Give a 3 minute talk without using technical jargon.
2. Use of presentation slides is optional.
3. Listen to other participants and give feedback.

Possible topics

- Research or study tasks you are working on
- Why you chose the topic
- Difficulties to overcome
- Possible contribution and impact
- Original and intriguing aspects of your research

Future Open Mics will be held in June and July.

- English
May. 26 (wed) 12:00-13:00
Moderator : ZENG, Wei
(Grad. school of Humanities)