(ii) Registration of application information

Input the required information to the application information registration form.

- You must complete (i) and (ii) by the stipulated deadline above. Please note that we will not accept applications under any circumstances after the deadline of the application information registration period.

Points to Note

- Registration of application information is a mandatory step to obtain an application number. You must complete the registration by the deadline stipulated above.
- The application number issued at the time of application information registration will be used in the subsequent screening procedure so that you must keep the number. For example, Form 3 must include the application number so that you must inform the number to the person who prepare Form 3 (Academic Advisor Evaluation).
- The information registration procedure is the same for internal applicants (those who are enrolled at Nagoya University and have a Nagoya University ID) and external applicants (those other than internal applicants).

【Students who do not meet the eligibility requirements but wish to apply for this program for specific reasons】

Students who are not eligible to apply under "4. Eligibility for Application" in the Application Guidelines, whether new or additional recruitments, but who wish to apply for this program under special circumstances, must follow the procedure below to be checked for their eligibility separately.

Register their application information during the application information registration period and submit the "Application for Application Eligibility Screening (Form A)" via the inquiry-only form on the website (<https://dec.nagoya-u.ac.jp/inquiry/forma>) by 14:00, January 10 (Fri) 2025.
